following the
camp at 5pm!

SCAN ME

The Gilbert Brown Foundation is sponsoring a football camp for all kids ages 6 to 18. Kids will learn how to make team contributions, give 100% and understand what it takes to be a team player. They'll learn how important your actions and attitudes are in football and life in general. Learn the life lessons Gilbert Brown discovered early, that motivated him to be his best, on and off the field.

Participants will take part in drills, learn sportsmanship, and basic football skills. They will hear a motivational story from Green Bay Legends. This football focused presentation will talk about the characteristics needed to develop a positive mental attitude. Learn how to create a winning mindset and how valuable teamwork is to your organization.
